

CERTIFICATE IV IN GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS (PSP40416)

Public Access Program | Brisbane March 2019

accelerated blended delivery – suitability guidelines apply

The Certificate IV in Government Investigations (PSP40416) is prescribed by the Australian Government Investigations Standards (AGIS) as the minimum qualification required by people engaged to work as a government investigator. Occupational fields include employment investigations, regulatory compliance, professional standards and fraud/corruption control.

It is usually delivered internally for groups of people from the same workplace and this program provides a pathway for people who do not have the opportunity to participate in a course delivered at their workplace.
