

DIPLOMA OF GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS (PSP50416)

UpGrade Program – July 2019

Available to people who have previously completed the Certificate IV in Government Investigations through a Sydney Institute of Professional Studies workshop program

The Diploma of Government Investigations (PSP50416) is prescribed by the Australian Government Investigations Standards (AGIS) as the minimum qualification for government investigation supervisors.

This is an upgrade program and uses previously completed coursework to provide eligible applicants with substantial academic and fee credit. As such registration is restricted to people who have previously completed the Certificate IV in Government Investigations through a Sydney Institute of Professional Studies (SIPS) workshop program.

People who are not eligible for this program should consider enrolment in the Certificate IV in Government Investigations program or the standard Diploma of Government Investigations workshop program. Details are available from the website or by emailing our office.

Completion for the UpGrade program includes participating in a 3-day training and assessment workshop at either Sydney or Melbourne on one of the following dates:

SYDNEY	Castlereagh Boutique Hotel 169 Castlereagh St, Sydney CBD	10-12 JULY 2019
MELBOURNE	Melbourne Metropole Central 44 Brunswick Street, Fitzroy	23-25 JULY 2019

Workshops run from 9.15am to 4.15pm and are not catered however lunch and beverages may be purchased from the venues or from nearby food outlets.

The workshop is complemented by project tasks which provide participants the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to apply the knowledge and skills developed at the workshops to work situations. Electronic templates are supplied to facilitate projects.

FEE: $1590 (GST-free)
